

Report of virtual celebration of National Voter's Day

Year: 2021-2022

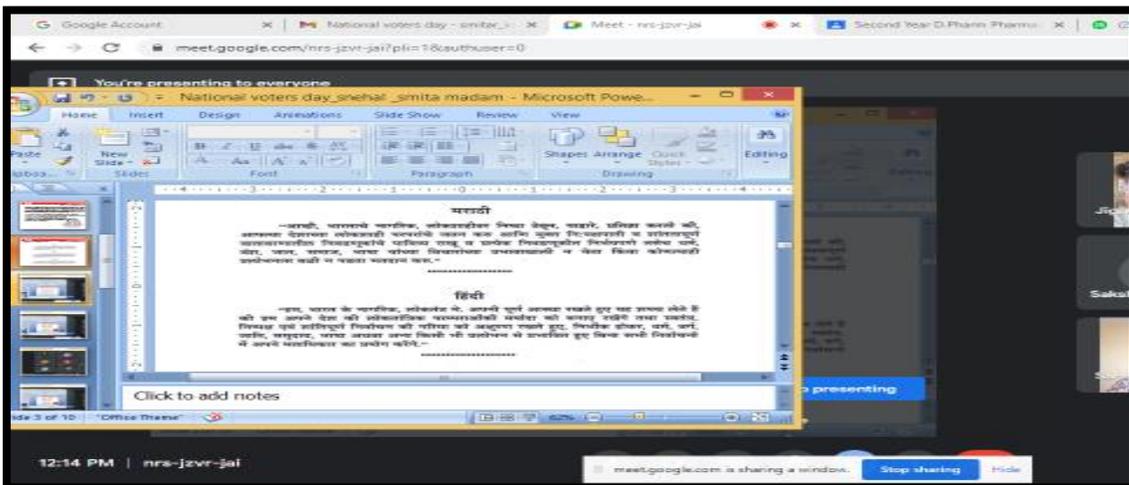

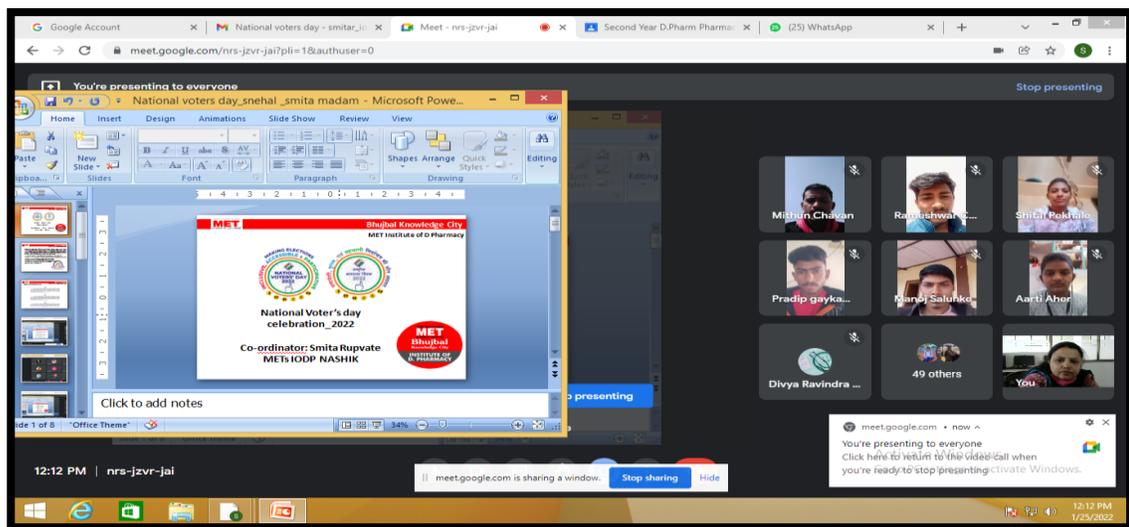

MET'S Institute of D. Pharmacy had organized the program of National Voters day for the students of the B. Pharmacy and D. Pharmacy which included sessions regarded to importance of democracy, along with pledge in order to motivate them and inspire them for voting.

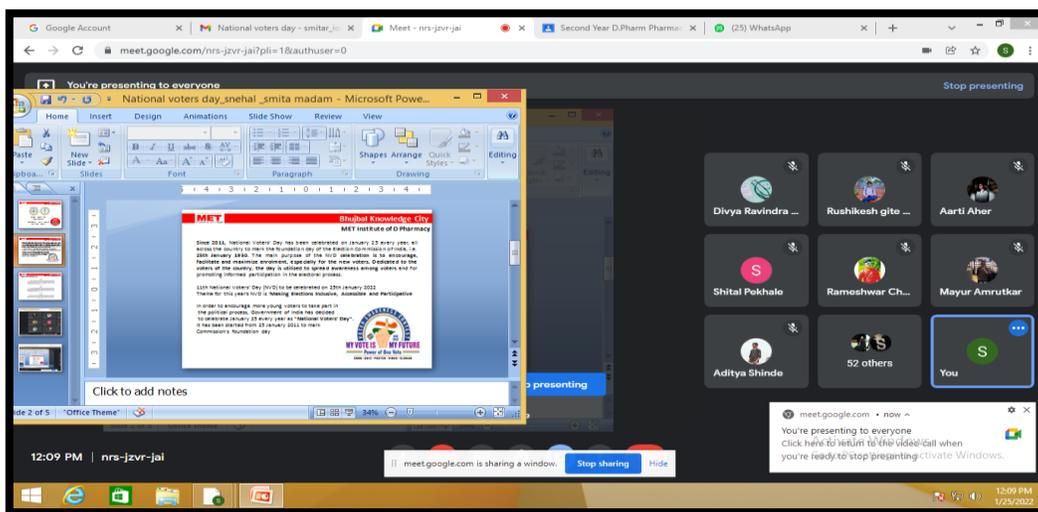

The induction program was scheduled for three days and the brief report of the induction program is as follows.

Program schedule:

1) Importance of voting and pledge by Snehal ukhade and Smita Rupvate

Brief summary: Ms. Snehal ukhade and Smita rupvate has conducted the pledge for doing the voting and tell importance of democracy.

2) Guest lecture:

Resource Person: Prof. Prashant Pawar

Title: Importance of Democracy.

Number of Participant: 90

Brief summary: Mr. Prashant Pawar has completed his MA(Marathi) SET and currently, he is working as a professor of Marathi at MET's Bhujbal Academy of Science and Commerce, adgaon Nashik. He explained the importance of Democracy, voting, and the role of youngsters in society. The objective of the session was to sensitize the students at an early age to create awareness and to motivate them for voting.

RESPONSE OF STUDENTS:

Students actively participated in the program by giving the answers of almost all the questions asked by resource person. Few students have shared their opinions, queries during the program as well all of them participated in Pledge activity. Overall response of students was very nice.

Dr. M.R.N. Shaikh
Principal.

Ms. Smita Rupvate
Ms. Snehal Ukhade
(Faculty Co-ordinator)